Thank you and farewell from Kate:

My dear Christian brothers and sisters, thank you so much for the most wonderful farewell service and party last Sunday at Mappleborough. I know there was a lot of hard work and preparation involved - thank you to everyone who played any part in making it such a warm, relaxed and wonderful day. It was particularly special to me in that people from across the whole of Arden Marches were drawn together and working together to create a beautiful event.

Thank you for the cards and for the extremely generous and very appropriate gifts: Powerful binoculars for my African safaris and other travels, and about £700 to spend as I wish. The cut glass wine glasses and tumblers made in the Black Country, where I am from, were particularly appropriate because they replace similar glasses that friends gave me as an ordination gift 29 years ago, and they will be a constant reminder of Jesus' transforming presence at the Wedding in Cana (John 2) that was the reading at my first and last services in Arden Marches. And, of course, there was a bottle of Prosecco. I feel very loved, known and understood!

Thank you all for your friendship and companionship on the Christian journey over the 7 years I have been rector here. The Holy Spirit is most definitely at work in these villages and churches, and it has been a great privilege to join you and be a part of all that the Lord is doing. I shall miss you all (and the view from the vicarage!) enormously, and I look forward to hearing news of you in the future.

I retire Friday 15th, so to contact me from now on please use my personal email address: kate.mier1@gmail.com

From 1st September my address will be 12 Avon Road, Kenilworth CV8 1DH (though I will have access to the vicarage until 15th September).

All are welcome to come and join any of our regular groups which take place in the Parish Centre.
