Annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

18-25th January

Daily Prayer Booklets to use during the Week of Prayer are available to download on www.ctbi.org.uk
Jesus prayed for his followers in every age: 'that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me' John 17:23 NRSV. So unity among Christians (including between different churches) is close to Jesus' heart, and vital for effective evangelism. Please join us on Sunday at 4pm at the Methodist Church in Studley for a special Churches Together service where we can gather from across the villages to deepen and pray for that unity.

Mens Breakfast

On Saturday 26th January 2019 7.45 for 8.00 am Meeting at the Kings Court Hotel, Kings Coughton, Nr Alcester. Guest speaker, Grant Lawley. From the age of 10, I was raised in flats in Birmingham. I quickly learnt how to live on the street, run, fight and defend myself. I had a lot of anger inside, life was unfair, and I turned to kickboxing to let this anger out. Soon enough my trainer, who was a 4 times world champion recognised I had what it took to get in the ring and fight. I progressed to become Midlands and then British super welterweight champion, to fighting on the biggest show in Europe and achieving 2nd in the U.K rankings at my weight. But deep down there was something missing, I was lost, depressed, my life was a mess and I desperately needed forgiveness. To hear the rest of the story.....
Admission £8 Please contact Alan Jarmy or Phil Pattison
