Tea in the Churchyard

A great afternoon. A huge thanks to all who made last Sunday's Tea in the Churchyard such a success. To all who helped set up and cleared away, who served and washed up and to those of you who provided the delicious cakes. Thank-you. Also a big thanks to Tony Lever for the History of the church event and to Barbara Beaman for the lovely flower displays in the church. Despite the distractions of tennis and cricket the turnout was very encouraging - around 100 in all - many from the village who do not normally attend the church. The weather was amazing again. Standby for next year!! Tony Drake
